Introduction

The Kentucky County Profiles 2012 contain a mixture of education, population, employment, and other data about each of Kentucky's 120 counties, as well as our Area Development Districts and Workforce Investment Boards. This publication has been compiled and produced by the Kentucky P-20 Data Collaborative to help state and local policy makers and others have easy access to critical information about their regions. These data are compiled from a variety of federal, state, and independent data sources.

Please note that these data are as complete and accurate as possible as of the publication date; however, the way various metrics are calculated may differ depending upon who is collecting and reporting the information. If comparing these data to other sources, we strongly encourage you to use the Technical Notes included in the back of this document to help you better understand where these data came from and how items were calculated. Expanded technical notes are available on the website. As updated or more accurate information is available, the profiles available on the Collaborative website are updated. Visit the website to access electronic copies of this document or to ensure you find the most current information available. ### Kentucky P-20 Data Collaborative

The Kentucky P-20 Data Collaborative provides accurate and timely data about the Commonwealth's education and workforce processes to better inform policy making and practice. The Kentucky P-20 Data Collaborative maintains a statewide longitudinal data system (SLDS) for Kentucky which includes early childhood, K-12, postsecondary, adult education, and workforce data. By bringing data together from across these different sectors we can provide policy makers and practitioners with a more complete picture.

The Collaborative is administratively attached to the Education and Workforce Development Cabinet and is overseen by a governance body composed of the agency heads from the Kentucky Department of Education (KDE), the Council on Postsecondary Education (CPE), the Education Professional Standards Board (EPSB), and is chaired by the Secretary of the Kentucky Education and Workforce Development Cabinet.

The statewide longitudinal data system securely links and de-identifies data from various state data systems into one seamless system. The ability to link data from early childhood, K-12, postsecondary, teacher licensure and preparation, workforce and other data sources will allow the state to develop a broader understanding about the education to workforce continuum.

Here are a few examples of analyses that can only be done with a system like the one Kentucky has developed:

- a. By linking high school and college data we are able to better understand how high school experiences affect college going and success. It allows us to provide much richer data about college preparation linked back to high schools so we can improve alignment between the two areas.
- b. We can also link preschool and early childhood information to kindergarten and elementary school performance to provide insights into actions necessary to ensure that all of Kentucky's children enter schools with the skills they need to be successful.
- c. Teacher preparation programs can benefit greatly by understanding how well their graduates are impacting student learning in the classrooms so they can adapt their programs to ensure that future teachers enter the classrooms with the skills they need to have the greatest impact on student learning.
- d. Linking education and employment records will allow us to know if our graduates are entering the workforce and earning a reasonable wage, how well our colleges are meeting the needs of Kentucky's industries, and what the return on investment is for our education and training programs.

Technical Notes

General Disclaimer:

Direct comparisons between data in this publication of the County Profile Report and the previous edition published by the Kentucky Council on Postsecondary Education should be made with caution. Much of the information in this publication is based on data from the 2010 US Census, the previous report was based on data from the 2000 US Census; a ten year gap. Also, many metrics and measures changed between publications. Each data item is defined below.

Basic Facts:

Total Population

Source: US Census Bureau, 2010 State and County Quick-Facts. <http://quickfacts.census.gov/qfd/states/21000.html>

Median Household Income

The Census defines a household as any group of related or unrelated individuals living together other than in group quarters such as dormitories, prisons, or military barracks. Half of all households have an income higher than the median, and half have an income lower than the median. The Census calculates median household incomes for counties, states, and the nation, but there is no way to mathematically combine medians, so we are unable to report median household incomes for Area development Districts or Workforce Investment Boards. Source: US Census Bureau, 2006-2010 American Community Survey, Table ID B19013 (5 year estimates).

Per Capita Income

<http://factfinder2.census.gov/faces/nav/jsf/pages/index.xhtml>

Living in Poverty

The percentage of the population living in households with incomes below the federally defined poverty level. Area Development District and Workforce Investment Board percentages were calculated by weighting each county's percentages by the total county population and should be treated as estimates. Source: US Census Bureau, 2006-2010 American Community Survey, Table ID S1701 (5 year estimates).

<http://factfinder2.census.gov/faces/nav/jsf/pages/index.xhtml>

Eligible for Medicaid

The percentage of the population eligible for Medicaid assistance. The state percentage is more than the combination of the county percentages due to the inclusion of eligible persons not assigned to a specific county. Comparable national data are not available. Source: Kentucky Department for Medicaid Services (2010). <http://chfs.ky.gov/dms/stats.htm#CharacteristicsofBeneficiaries>

Without Medical Insurance

The percentage of the population under the age of 65 not covered by medical insurance. Area Development District and Workforce Investment Board percentages are calculated by weighting each county's percentage by the total county population. Source: US Census, Small Area Health Insurance Estimates Program (2009 estimates).

<http://www.census.gov/did/www/sahie/data/2009/tables.html>

Registered Voters who Voted in the 2008 General Election

The national percentage refers to the 48 states (and the District of Columbia) which required voters to be registered before voting for a Presidential candidate in the 2008 general election. (Wisconsin and North Dakota did not require voter registration.) Sources: Kentucky State Board of Elections (general election, Nov 2008). <http://elect.ky.gov/statistics/Pages/turnoutstatistics.aspx> National Source: <http://uselectionatlas.org>

Unemployment Rate

The percentage of the civilian workforce that is actively looking for work but is unable to find it. Source: Kentucky Office of Employment and Training (2010 annual averages of monthly estimates). Area Development District and Workforce Investment Board percentages are calculated by weighting each county's percentage by the total county population.

Access to Broadband Internet

Access to broadband is defined as the percentage of households in a county population with broadband or internet availability as of 12/31/2010. This does not suggest everyone who has potential access actually uses it. Area Development District and Workforce Investment Board percentages are calculated by weighting each county's percentage by the total county population. The previous publication provided a measurement of usage from a source that is no longer available. Source: National Telecommunications and Information Administration. <http://broadbandmap.gov/>

Educational Attainment:

Highest Level of Education

All of these percentages by education level are estimates for the adult population ages 25 and over. Area Development District and Workforce Investment Board percentages are calculated by weighting each county's percentage by the county's age 25 and over population. Source: US Census Bureau, 2006-2010 American Community Survey, Table ID S1501 (5 year estimates). <http://factfinder2.census.gov/faces/nav/jsf/pages/index.xhtml>

College Readiness:

Average GPA for 2010 Graduates

The average Grade Point Averages (GPA) for graduates from counties, Area Development Districts, and Workforce Investment Boards include 2010 graduates from accountable high schools only and do not include alternative schools. The State's GPA score is an average of all public school graduates. Source: Kentucky Department of Education.

Average Junior Year ACT Composite Score for 2010 Graduates

The ACT exam was modified and the benchmarks for achieving a passing score was increased therefore scores across the board are slightly lower than reported in the previous publications. The previous publication displayed the average ACT scores using the 2005-06 twelfth-graders' highest composite score achieved on any date through October 2006. This publication displays the average ACT score of tested 2008-09 eleventh graders who graduated in 2010. Due to the different method used to arrive at the average ACT score and the change in the benchmark scores used to determine college readiness between the two publications, direct comparisons cannot be made. ##### Graduates Ready for College Level Mathematics

The percentage of eleventh graders who took the ACT statewide administration in 2008-2009 and scored at least a 19 on the mathematics section. Source: Kentucky Department of Education and CPE Benchmark

2010 Employment by Sector Pie Chart:

All employment numbers are 2010 annual averages of data collected by the Kentucky Office of Employment and Training in the Quarterly Census of Employment and Wages (QCEW). The QCEW is a quarterly survey of Kentucky employers covering all employment subject to state unemployment insurance withholding or similar federal programs. This excludes the self-employed, federal employees, and the military. The QCEW is a census of jobs at the place of employment rather than at the employees' places of residence. Federal disclosure rules require employment numbers to be concealed if it is reasonably possible to more-or-less accurately estimate a single employer's employment numbers based on the data reported.

This graph includes the decennial census data for the years 1980 to 2000 and the 2010 annual census data from the US Census Bureau American Community Survey for the percentage of the population living in households with incomes below the federally defined poverty level. Source: US Census
